

LIBRARY DAYS AND DATES TO REMEMBER
2009 - 2010

IMPORTANT NOTES:

Dates listed are deadlines, or final dates for action, unless otherwise indicated. Many require preliminary steps, which if one waits until the deadline to comply with, are impossible to meet. Accordingly, it is wise to mark your calendar well in advance of the final dates for action. Also, should the law require publication, your calendar should be marked with printer's deadlines in mind. Many of these deadline dates are Saturday or Sunday and the last practical date is the Friday preceding such dates (as the last day offices are open).

B & M NOTE [Building and Maintenance Tax]:

Since this tax requires "back door referendum" authorization, the time lines are keyed to a possible referendum and that election timetable, as well as the preceding steps of an original ordinance, a published notice within 15 days, a time for opposing petitions which is a minimum of 30 days after publication, and a resolution to either rescind or put on the ballot. While it might be preferable, in even numbered years, to use the fall election (prior to the levy deadline) so that tax authority is clearly known, it is not legally required. The fall election in odd numbered years has been repealed. If the following spring election is used, the County Clerk will still know in time for that extension on the prior year's levy, but the authority will not be known before the levy deadline.

NOTE FOR MUNICIPAL AND TOWNSHIP LIBRARIES ONLY:

Events marked with an asterisk () presume a fiscal year beginning April 1. Consequently, if your fiscal year begins on any other date, events marked with an asterisk () must be changed to correspond with your fiscal year.

TIT NOTE:

The Truth in Taxation deadlines hinge on the "corporate authorities", i.e. city, village or town board, timing, not the library's. The TIT calculations also use all city, village or town tax funds, not just library, taken as a whole. Therefore, coordination with them is the key. If the corporate authorities are scheduling the TIT estimates, advertisement and/or hearing prior to the levy adoption itself, the dates for each might be, and probably are, much earlier than shown as "deadlines" here. Basically the minimums are: the estimated levy amount, for all funds, must be at least 20 days before the levy adoption; the advertisement must appear, no more than 14 days and no less than 7 days before the hearing; and hearing may be at the same time as the levy adoption or before, but cannot be the same time as the budget and appropriation hearing. The final notice, seldom needed, must be published within 15 days of the levy adoption.
